5. The attention of the public is invited to the provisions of Section 7 of the Record of Rights Act requiring them, on requisition by a Revenue Officer engaged in compiling or revising the Record of Rights, to furnish or produce information and documents needed for the correct compilation or revision thereof within one month from the date of such requisition. Failure to comply with this requisition and secure registration of their rights will render occupants and holders of interests in land liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 (recoverable as an arrear of land revenue), besides depriving them of the advantages enumerated above. The officer to whom any information is furnished or before whom any document is produced in accordance with the requisition, will give a written acknowledgment therefor, in the form prescribed, to the person furnishing or producing the same and shall endorse on any such document, before returning it to him a note under his signature stating the fact of its production and the date thereof.

By Order,
B. T. KESAVIENGAR,
Chief Secretary to Government.
